Take Your Songs Everywhere

With a perfect size for traveling, the Trust Rokko Compact Bluetooth Speaker is your musical partner in crime during any trip. And with water resistance and long battery life, it will support all kinds of travel. Everywhere you go, always take your music with you.

Play an Encore

The long lasting battery will have you playing even your longest playlists from start to finish. With up to 20 hours of playtime on one charge, the speaker has an impressive battery life.

Link Up

Double the fun by linking up two Rokko speakers. Thanks to their wireless connection capabilities, they will be able to boost your party to an even higher level.

Party, No Matter the Weather

The compact and water resistant (IPX5) speaker is ideal for traveling, no matter the destination. Rain or shine, the speaker will supply you with your favourite tunes.

Make the Call

The speaker does more than just playing music everywhere you go: thanks to the built-in microphone, it's possible to make handsfree phone calls as well.
